

Happy Halloween from WNY

On Friday, Oct. 30, on the Eve of Halloween West New York's school buildings were overrun with witches, zombies, pirates, and even the late King of Pop Michael Jackson.

From early morning to late afternoon, the students of West New York celebrated an early Halloween by dressing up and marching in their annual school parades for their families and friends.

Click here for pictures of your favorite Trick or Treater