

Spreading some holiday cheer

On Monday, Dec. 14, the kindergarten students of Harry L. Bain School and the West New York No. 2 School Chorus paid a special holiday visit to the town's senior citizens at William Jefferson Clinton and John Kennedy Towers.

Each school performed holiday classics for the senior citizens. The kindergarteners of HLB dressed up as Santa and his reindeer to sing some of their holiday favorites, including Jingle Bells, Santa Claus is Coming to Town, and We Wish You a Merry Christmas. Later that morning, the No. 2 School Chorus performed their holiday concert program entitled "Dear Santa."

Click here for more photos

