

Welcome back!

The 2009-2010 school year has officially begun in West New York. Everywhere kids scrambled off the school bus, or were dropped off by mom and dad, ready to begin their first day of class.

After weeks of preparation, teachers welcomed their new students and are eager to get the year off to a running start.

To view pictures of the first day of school visit your child's school news webpage.

