Schools in Need of Improvement

August 31, 2011

Dear Parents:

We are dedicated to providing all students with the educational foundation necessary to succeed in school and in life. To ensure your child's success, we have set high standards that are reflected in what is taught in our classrooms. The No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB) reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) requires that adequate yearly progress (AYP) in language arts literacy and mathematics be measured annually for each school in New Jersey.

AYP is based primarily on the results of the New Jersey state assessments given to students in grades 3 through 8 and grade 11. Schools must meet the state's academic proficiency benchmarks, as well as other indicators such as test participation and attendance/dropout rate, to make AYP. These benchmarks increase on an incremental basis every three years.

Schools that did not make AYP for one year (Year 1) receive an Early Warning designation to alert them that students did not meet at least one of the AYP indicators. If a school does not make AYP for two or more consecutive years in the same content area (language arts literacy and mathematics) it is identified as a school in need of improvement.

The status of the following school has changed. Memorial High School is now a Year Three Hold (Passing) status. For schools that are now in improvement status, their academic achievement in language arts literacy and mathematics can be compared to other schools in the state by referencing the NCLB State Report at <http://education.state.nj.us/rc/>.

Because Memorial High School is not a Title I school, there are no additional requirements other than parent and public notification. This letter serves as meeting the parent notification requirement. Posting or linking to the AYP Status Reports and the NCLB Report meets the public notification requirements.

Our school is committed to addressing the issues that caused our school to miss AYP. Your support and input is welcome as we work to successfully achieve our student performance goals. As a parent, you are encouraged to contact your child's school principal to provide input and see how you can become involved in helping the school address its achievement issues.

Some of the steps we have already taken or plan to implement this year to address the problem(s) that placed your child's school in improvement status include the following:
