Congratulations Joshua Casquejo!

WNY Middle School student, Joshua Casquejo (8th Grader), is once again the Spelling Bee champion. Joshua was the winner last year and he will be competing in the County Spelling Championship at NJCU on February 20th at 9:30AM. The winner of the County goes on to Washington D.C. for the National Championship which Joshua competed in last year for winning the County.

Middle School students celebrate and learn about Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.
